A black and white photograph showing a person from behind, standing in front of a chain-link fence. The person is holding a marker and writing on a rectangular sign that is pinned to the fence. The sign contains a handwritten message in capital letters. Below the sign, a 'KEEP OUT' sign is visible on the fence. The background is bright and overexposed.

TODAY WE REMEMBER
ALL THOSE WHO DIED
WHEN THE BOMB DROPPED
ON HIROSHIMA
AND ALL THOSE WHO HAVE
DIED IN WAR AND CONFLICT
WE THINK OF THOSE WHO
SUFFER AND STRUGGLE SO
THAT WAR WILL CEASE
AND WE THINK OF THOSE OF HOLES FROM BOMBING
WHO DIED YESTERDAY
PEACE WILL COME

SOON WE REMEMBER
ALL THOSE WHO DIED
WHEN THE BOMB DROPPED
ON HANOI
AND ALL THOSE WHO WERE
DIED IN WAR AND CONFLICT
WE THINK OF THOSE WHO
SUFFER AND STRUGGLE SO
THAT WE WILL CEASE
AND WE THINK OF ALL
THOSE WHO DIED
AND DID HISTORY
WE WILL COME
